March 30 has been officially designated "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" by the U.S. Senate.

On 2 March 2015 fifty-one years have passed since an aerial bombardment campaign known by code name RollingThunder was launched against strategic targets in North Vietnam. On 8 March 2015 fifty-one years have passed since US Marines landed on a beach in South Vietnam, becoming the first US ground fighting forces to be committed to the Vietnam war. On 30 March 2015 forty-three years have passed since the last combat and combat support American troops withdrew from South Vietnam, ending direct US military involvement in the Vietnam War.

President General Thomas E. Lawrence

During the 1960's and the Vietnam War years, our nation eventually became a state in turmoil with dissatisfaction over US involvement in SE Asia. Except for a few former policymakers like Walt Rostow and Henry Kissinger, a majority of the American public, regardless of their politics, believed that sending our troops to war was a mistake. In 1971, for example, 58% of the public told pollsters that they thought the war was "immoral," a word that most Americans had never applied to their country's wars. Even in this century, a Gallup poll conducted during November 13-15, 2000, found that nearly seven out of ten Americans

"The willingness with which our young people are likely to serve in any war, no matter how justified, shall be directly proportional to how they perceive veterans of earlier wars were treated and appreciated by our nation."

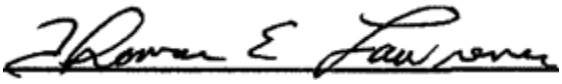
(69%) believed that our involvement in Vietnam was a mistake. And in the Congressional Record of 7 March 2011 it is documented the Senate concurred in the fact that the Vietnam War years were an extremely divisive period among the people of the United States, which caused a generation of veterans to wait too long for the United States public to acknowledge and honor them with words of gratitude. When the troops came home there were no ticker-tape parades honoring them, no triumphant marches or speeches as there had been at the end of World War I and World War II. America's Vietnam veterans returned home to silence, or worse, in some cases to denigration for having served their country.

The purpose here is not to elaborate on the merits or faults of the Vietnam War; or to explain why we were there, what we accomplished or how we could have done it better. The purpose here is to acknowledge and honor the Compatriots of the Vietnam War with words of gratitude. For us, the Sons of the American Revolution, such words should come easily and sincerely for they are an acknowledgment of deeds similar to that which our forefathers did: They fought not for territorial gain, or personal wealth. They fought to make a country free.

It is with deep humility and pride that on behalf of the Compatriots of the Sons of the American Revolution I say thank you to Vietnam War Veterans for their service to country, especially to the 436 Compatriots who are members of the NSSAR Vietnam War Veterans Corps. Welcome home!



President General Thomas E. Lawrence

"It is with deep humility and pride that on behalf of the Compatriots of the Sons of the American Revolution I say thank you to Vietnam War Veterans for their service to country, especially to 436 Compatriots who are members of the SAR Vietnam War Veterans Corps. Welcome home!"

Thomas E. Lawrence, President General

To Join the Corps

There are six SAR Military Veterans Corps. If you served in the Armed Forces of the United States, received a discharge under conditions other than dishonorable, and you are a SAR Member in good standing, complete the Multi-Corps Survey Form, which is downloadable from www.VetCorps.Info. When done return it to the SAR Veterans Recognition Committee at VetCorps@sar.org. After being approved, a Certificate of Patriotism for your service to country will be signed by the President General and sent to your chapter, through the Secretary of your State Society. At an appropriate chapter, state or national meeting the Certificate of Patriotism will be presented to you.

Photo to the left is Chuck Sweeney, during his 2nd Vietnam tour in 1969. He flew out of DaNang, Vietnam as an OV-10 Forward Airborne Controller. First tour was 1966-67, in and about Chu Lai and DaNang as a Platoon Commander with the 2nd Battalion, 5th Marines, and the 3rd Battalion, 1st Marines.

If you have a picture of warrior days' gone bye, send one or two my way with a brief story. We'll post they to the VRC website, under the photo tab.
