

How to use the SAR Patriot & Grave Index

Link: <https://www.sar.org/genealogy/patriot-search>

The screenshot shows the SAR website's navigation menu. The 'GENEALOGY' dropdown menu is open, listing several options. A callout bubble points to 'Patriot Search' with the text: "From the Genealogy drop-down menu, select 'Patriot Search'". Another callout bubble points to the 'Patriot Search' link in the main content area with the text: "Select 'SAR Patriot & Grave Index' to get started".

This will take you to the 'Welcome' screen for both the Patriots & Grave Index or the Biography Index

Let's begin with Biography Index, which now should be called the Patriot Biography Index.

Joseph PERKINS

14 Mar 1738 13 Jun 1805 By: David J. Perkins

It is the sole responsibility of the author research the facts and data contained in this article. Citing sources is not required. This article cannot be used for proof of Joseph Perkins (son of Jacob Perkins and Hannah Borman), born March 14, 1738, married Anna Batchelder on December 26, 1762. She was born in 1741 and died December 7, 1805. They moved from Topsfield, Mass. To Unity, N.H. in 1777. He died June 13, 1805. Buried in Sullivan County cemetery.

Children born in Topsfield, MA:

- Jacob, b. March 20, 1764
- Anna, b. June 2, 1765, died October 21, 1836
- Henry, b. August 25, 1767, died April 30, 1837
- Jabesh, b. April 9, 1769, died November 16, 1843
- Hannah, b. March 17, 1771
- Elisha, b. October 11, 1772
- El, b. November 6, 1774 (died)

Children born in Unity, NH:

- Lucy, b. November 6, 1777
- El, b. July 31, 1781, died October 31, 1841

During the French and Indian War years, Joseph served several times. In July of 1758, he served under Capt. Israel Herrick in Col. Jeddiah Preble's regiment and fought in the battle for Fort Ticonderoga against the French and were soundly defeated. The regiment was formed from 2 counties in Maine and 1 in Massachusetts.

Revolutionary War service of Joseph starts with the Lexington alarm. Joseph was a private in Captain Stephen Perkins' 60 which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775. In 1776, Joseph Perkins was serving in Col. Edward Wiggesworth's regiment as a Sergeant. He was promoted to Ensign on 21 Sept. 1776 at Taconderoga, NY. This was from orderly books and a pay abstract that listed Ensign Joseph Perkins of Topsfield, serving in Capt. Joshua French's company in Col. Wiggesworth's regiment with a mileage allowance for travel from Albany, NY to home. Following his service in 1776, he moves his family to Unity.

In Unity, Joseph became active in town affairs, becoming Selectman in 1784 and 1790, and Captain of the town militia before his death in 1805. He built a gristmill in North Charlestown, NH run by son, Elisha. He built a sawmill and gristmill in Middlesex, VT that was run by his sons, Henry and Jabesh.

According to his grandson, Amos Perkins, "Joseph Perkins was one of three first pioneers who visited Unity about the date of its first charter in 1764. He was man of some property, owning 400 acres of land in a body. He was a man of peculiar prejudices; he would never own a horse, but, although quite corpulent, would keep and always ride a mowl in all his journeying, as a carriage, in those days, was never known or thought of. He was very fond of wild game and kept himself well armed with a good gun, bear-trap, fox trap and about 25 small steel traps. My grandfather was a man of strong prejudices both in religious and political matters and was of undoubted integrity. He was a Republican of the Jefferson school and had no sympathy with the Federal party. In religious matters he was rather skeptical."
